

Great Harvest Bakery is Making Dough for The Food Bank of Covington

All Product Sales on Sunday, August 15 benefit The Food Bank of Covington

August 15, 2010

4700 Hwy 22, Mandeville, LA – Parkview Plaza Shopping Center

8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The Great Harvest Bakery in Mandeville, LA invites residents to stock up on fresh out-of-the-oven breads and treats at a Bake Day fundraiser to support The Food Bank of Covington.

Bakery owner Renee O'Brien says generosity is at the core of the Great Harvest mission statement, so extending support to The Food Bank of Covington feels very right, especially because of the services they provide to those in need in our community.

The Bake Day will feature Honey Whole Wheat, Honey White, Cinnamon Chip breads along with Dillon & Oatmeal Raisin Cookies.

Founded in 2009, the locally owned and operated Mandeville Great Harvest bakery is known for breads rich in taste, and made with the freshest ingredients including daily-milled whole grain flour. The whole wheat is purchased from family owned farms located on the high plains of Montana. The bakery creates an array of legendary fresh-baked breads and sweets, as well as specialty items during holidays.
